Dearest Fraternal Brothers of the Holy Roman Empire

May you convien,

"Sorry I don't want to be an Emperor, that's not my business, I desire no power nor do I seek to rule or conquer anyone, I seek to help everyone... and indeed, it is possible."

"I in no way intend to cast the Holy Roman Empire in poor light, having personally learned much from your great and storied history.

"We may collaborate around how - I present your role moving forward."

"Much of what I say here today has been said time and time again throughout our history and repeated by men of great character and heart, yet today things have changed by orders of magnitude and the cost of failure never been greater. Not merely affecting a people or nation but indeed the whole of the world. This day I announce to the world, I have taken up this great mantel with the knowledge it will very likely cost my life which is preferable to my soul."

"We must be very careful with the minds in not only christian nations moving forward as portraying the church as this great villain for having kept this secret for so long as well as other little known rituals such as wearing the crown of "Ba'al" or some other other misunderstood tradition."

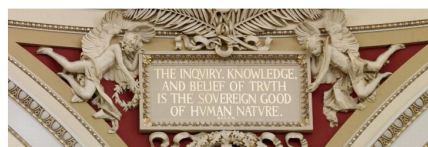

"This would have negative social and psychological consequences and in fact may begin a "Great War" where neither YHWH nor Ba'al nor Allah will save humanity from ourselves. It is for humanity to save itself, for us to save each other, this is our great lesson, to become independent. This may not be done for us if we are to grow better reflecting the image we are created in, we must do so together and for the good of all humanity."

"I intend to reply when asked that, it has been my understanding the Holy Roman Empire as expressed by my colleagues, were themselves concerned with the who, how and why for / of this funds existence and how it could be disclosed without great social unrest..."

The Cestui Que Vie Trust was incarnated around valuations gained through the revelations triggered during the unimaginable horror and despair of the Bubonic Plague and the resulting decimation in/of faith that followed the loss of so much human character. Further it had always been the plan of the Church and Rome to bestow the investment and intellectual bond market valuation, yet until now lacked the necessary tools to justify or quantify the actual value of a free creative mind.

Now having the capacity for decentralized accounting providing that "The People" have oversight can allow.

"Themselves aware the fund to be best revealed in an initiative that effects great social revelation of Spiritual Value and perception, can no longer be kept secret."

Having developed our capacities as well as competencies in quantum computing, geospatial psychographics, mechanisation, automation, Robotics and symmetries effects on development of cognizant psycho socio psychological / sentient collectively conscious traits in humanity, the Holy Roman Empire was looking for and had leaked information in efforts to facilitate,

Transdisciplinarianism over more basic strategical logistics for implementation as this appears to best mitigate and manage cognitive dissonance around acceptance in both faith based, intellectual mentalities and societies alike. Improving overall outcomes as well as coping future disruption. Over and above all this, they too believe a Transdisciplinarian Methodology and application of technologies to the sciences be done transparently for the good of humanity and not for power or control."

"The very soul of humanity is in danger of being lost to cybernetics entirely and/or completely manipulated and/or controlled socio-psychographically by the increasing integration of man with technology as well as Artificial Intelligence. There are but few awake / aware who alone are unable to develop our collective social consciousness and comprehension beyond technologies expanding limits and it is that stimuli compounding our resolve to be more than our own creation, more than the sum of our parts, realizing that with each individual playing their part, again in a higher order of magnitude emergent qualities begin to be revealed producing or triggering the expression of traits unveiling a more holistic understandings within / without humanity."

"Together we intend to collaborate with all nations and faiths, relating to and identifying with their priorities in tracing out our individual paths forward towards shared higher objectives."

"The Holy Roman Empire's reaction here largely decides humanity's fate as other paths end in their (the church's) and humanities destruction as well as the loss of all humanity's triumphant progress over the past 2,000 years. Indeed an age has passed and a new age is upon us, just as in every new age a higher POST is set for humanity, may we address this, in this time as one!..?" - ljc

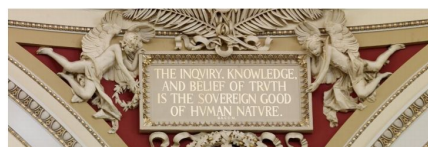

"There are five links embedded in this plea for humanity, may you take twenty minutes to read this and reflect on what is meant to be conveyed here today being moved in spirit to come together as one around reinstilling in humanity our own sense of Sovereignty and limitless potential, that there is indeed only one great energy and that we are all but a playing of that one great energy."

Perhaps the sceptics are correct and everything that has brought me here is merely a great cosmic coincidence, perhaps...
